VisiPics

If you get too many pictures on your hard drive, downloaded or photographed, from several different sources, it may happen that you have many duplicates. In that case you need a quick and easy to use program that finds and deletes all your duplicates.

VisiPics does more than just look for identical files, it goes beyond checksums to look for similar pictures and does it all with a simple user interface. First, you select the root folder or folders to find and catalogue all of your pictures. It then applies five image comparison filters in order to measure how close pairs of images on the hard drive are.

Visipic is a program that is considerably faster than any other commercial product and has an interface that let you do other things while Visipics automatically finds your duplicated images. It will detect two different resolution files of the same picture as a duplicate, or the same picture saved in different formats, or duplicates where only minor cosmetic changes have taken place.

All detected duplicates are shown side by side with pertinent information such as file name, type and size being displayed. Its auto-select mode let you choose if you want to keep the higher resolution picture, space-saving filetype, smaller filesize or all of the above. If you are insecure over what you really want to delete you can manually select the images you don't want to keep and delete them yourself.

Phrase Express

Autotext

PhraseExpress expands text abbreviations into full phrases for you. E.g. typing 'sig' could insert your signature into any program.

PhraseExpress provides this known MS Office Autotext feature in any Windows program, e.g. Internet Explorer, Excel, Database Front Ends, etc.

Auto-Complete

PhraseExpress recognizes repetitive text input automatically and offers to auto-complete full sentences on the fly.

Spell Checking

PhraseExpress automatically corrects spelling mistakes in seven languages in any program.

Clipboard Manager

While the standard Windows Clipboard keeps only the last copied data, the PhraseExpress Clipboard Manager stores recently copied clipboard contents for instant pasting into any application.

Program Launcher

Launch programs simply by entering a text shortcut. For example, type 'word' to launch Microsoft Word or 'exc' to open a spreadsheet.

Email Signatures

PhraseExpress can manage your email signatures for use in any mail program, such as Outlook, Lotus Notes or Thunderbird. Dynamic contents can be embedded from ActiveDirectory/LDAP.

Easily manage multiple signatures of different languages or separate footers for personal vs business purposes.

RSI syndrome prevention

PhraseExpress reduces the risk of suffering from the repetitive strain injury Carpel Tunnel, as it helps to significantly reduce amount of time spent using a keyboard.

Card Master - Probably the easiest PIM in the World!

This unique Contacts/Address/Phonebook/Agenda program manages and keep track of all your contacts, addresses, phonenumber, fax, e-mail, info...! Add a photo to each card if wanted. Change field-labels.

It's a very complete address book with many powerful functions and still very EASY TO USE! Has a autodial, security, inquiry, sort options, e-mail and web support, many print-options, print preview, Currency-calculator, calendar... You can do mailmerge with MS-Word using your addresses stored in RGS-CardMaster! Export to Excel. This user friendly "address manager/phone book" has a low learning curve, but to call it just another "Phonebook" program would not do it right as it gives you the power of DBase but so much more easier that even kids would manage it, and still, advanced options are there to please the power users! Complete with an Agenda that is super easy in use. And yes, perhaps best of all, RGS-CardMaster is FREE!

You can always upgrade the Free Edition by making a donation if you want. You'll receive a special key that turns your copy into the Pro Edition for life! My thanks in advance.

Do I have to upgrade? No, the Free Edition is FREeware, so you you're not obligated. It does give you extra advantages as described below.
